

Reflection — Obedience in Refining Fire

Taking time to reflect is one of the most powerful tools for spiritual growth and self-awareness. These journal prompts are designed to help you pause, process, and partner with God in the places He's refining you. Don't rush the answers—let the Holy Spirit guide your thoughts. As you write, ask God to reveal what's beneath the surface and align your heart more fully with His truth and design..

- 1. What fires have you been asking God to remove that He may be using to refine you?

- 2. Where have you been confusing pain with punishment instead of seeing it as preparation?

- 3. Are there areas where you've delayed obedience because it feels costly or uncomfortable?

- 4. What specific truth from Scripture can you anchor yourself to in this season of fire?
